Arbor Financial Credit Union Donates to Ministry with Community

Arbor Financial Credit Union presents a check for $1,100 to representatives from Eleanor's Pantry, in Paw Paw.

PAW PAW, MI (May 24, 2018) – Arbor Financial Credit Union is pleased to announce another donation thanks to the efforts of the Arbor Caring Committee, to Eleanor's Pantry, a non-profit group in Paw Paw helping those in need in the Paw Paw and Lawton areas.

The Caring Committee is a group of Arbor Financial volunteers dedicated to raising funds, gathering items for donation, and volunteering to support organizations making a difference in our communities.

On Wednesday, May 23, representatives from Arbor Financial Credit Union were pleased to present a check to Eleanor's Pantry, in the amount of $1,100, from funds raised through the credit union's 'Casual for a Cause' initiative.

'Casual for a Cause' is one of the Caring Committee's signature endeavors, in which Arbor Financial employees donate money for the ability to wear jeans on Fridays. The ongoing initiative has raised thousands of dollars for organizations across southwest Michigan.

Eleanor's Pantry has provided both food and non-food based assistance to those in the Paw Paw and Lawton areas since its inception in 2009, but traces its roots back to cooperative efforts to help those in need as far back as the early 1960's. Each donation to the completely volunteer organization is used 100% to provide food for the up to 1,000 children and adults the pantry helps to feed each month.

In the past, the Caring Committee has also raised funds for Ministry With Community, Bronson Children's Hospital, Housing Resources Inc., Kalamazoo Valley Habitat for Humanity, and many others.
